DECISION UPON THE LIQUOR LAW. Clark Court of Common Pleas, Jan-

SAME US. PEAR AND WARDER, Upon appeal from the Mayor's Court of Jeffersonville. Judge Lovering delivered

The decision of these cases involves the necessity of determining, for the action of this Court, the constitutionality of the 10th and 13th sections, and, from their context, of the remaining provisions of the "Temperance" or "Liquor" act of 1855, left undetermined by the divided opinions of the Judges of our Supreme Court. The responsibility becomes more painful from the failure in the few reported decisions of the Courts of our sister States, upon similar laws, apply them and shake the conservative character due to the tribunals established to uphold the laws of the land. It is still no less the province but the imperative duty of the Courts, to conserve first the rights of the citiaw of the land.

In the direct antagonism of an act of the Legislature to the provisions of our State or Federal Constitution, the duty of the Court deciding nice or complicated questions of private right. But in decisions from deductions from constitutional provisions, and more our social organization not surrendered by our constitution, that responsibility is transcendently increased and can only be assumed, after a careful research into the theory of our individual and social rights, and the amount surrendered to legislative control. The current of our legitimate legislation and recognized decisions, may indicate the just determination of the question where a pulsars and determination of the question where a pulsars and all property in the redemption of the symbol. The evan-ties against unlicensed retailing and the liabilities for sales to inebriates had but thrown additional guards against tippling and dram shops, declared nuisances at common law, for any disorderly conduct therein. They were civilized States have subjected minors to tu-legislation of Great Britain and our sister States, which has passed judicial ordeal.

Under the adjudication of our Supreme Court, (Bepley v. The State, 1V Ind. 264, and Maize v. The State, same, 342,) upon the act of 1853, the right of property and its disposable condition remained unimpaired to those who submitted to regulations provided by the act against its abuses. The increased penalties against such abuses, did not change the character of the act from one of regulations.

The free traffic for cer-tain purposes indicated the purposes subject to abuse in the opinion of the legislature. The general traffic, subject to abuse, was subjected to preventive scrutiny and guaranty, under increased penalties, but not prohibited. Whether the law of 1853, or previous laws, furnished sufficient or proper protection or remedies against abuses of this traffic, is not the question for the Courts, but the Legisla.

Admitting, however, that the act was within the general admission of this prohibitory character. An article, heretofore and yet recognized as property in our legislation, is rendered contraband, a traffic, recognized throughout the christian dispensation and for many centuries prior thereto, as legitimate, is prohibited under heavy penalties. The sale of intoxicating liquors is withdrawn from the general purposes of trade and confined to the express demands of science and the ordinance of the church. The legal contemplation of the property is changed by the act, and that change is apparent in the sections under immediate examination.

Our previous legislation upon this subject had progressed upon the besis of regulation, not prohibitor of the traffic. The penalties for sales to inchristant and the traffic in it, or they cannot. The change is against united to a subject to the content of the content of the content of the country in connection with and forming part of the collegislation, is to longer expressed in the disjoint end members of the church. In answer to the reproaches against him, (Matt. ch. vi, v. 19: Luke, ch, vii, v. 35,) our Savieur says, "the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, behold a man that is a glutton and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. traffic, or possession for beverage, or care of health in diet or other sanitary purposes and rebuke of excesses or abuses, rendered faint and powerless by being classed with the support of intemperance. The moral tone of society is broken up, in the jarring contention and mutual reproaches of the friends of good order. The authenticated reports from police officers and others, most favorably situated to know the facts, represent that the consumption of intoxicating liquors and drnnkenness has increased, especially in the arge towns in the States where similar laws have been enacted. The entire failure in the city of Boston to enforce a similar law where the jury are judges of the law and the fact and will not convict, shows the repugnance in the public mind to these enactment and the utter deficiency, so to express it, of all vital or moral power in them.

For the reasons here presented, the temperance or liquor act of 1855, is not, in my opinion, the law of the land; -from its invasion of the right of property, not surrendered by our constitution to the power of the Legislature and frem its opposition to the provisions in our bill of rights. If my decision is not sustainable upon the doctrine of the inviola-bility of property upon which I have placed it, then the disjointed portions of the act must fall with the portions already decided nucon-stitutional as in pari materia.

Deciding the questions upon general priniples, I have examined the code of christian ethics whether the provisions of the act obtained any sanction from christianity.

The motion to dismiss these cases must be sustained, but the attention of the Prosecuting Attorney and members of the bar is invited to the question whether the act of 1853, (excepting the 2d and 3d sections repealed) is not in full force "proprio vigore."

(a.) After the model of the Jewish Passover, and the first institution of this rite, the celebration of the Lord's Supper originally was always joined with a general meal, and both together formed one whole; and becaus the communion of believers with the Lord, and their brotherly communion with each other, was represented by it, the two together were called the Supper of the Lord, or the lovefeast. It was the daily rite of Christian communion in the first Church at Jerusalem; in Acts it. 46, we are most probably to understand both together. We find both connected together in the first Corinthian Church, and one is inclined to suppose that this was also the innocent simple meal of the Christians, of which Pliny speaks in his report to the emperor Trajan.

Opinions of the Press.

Putnan's Monthly.—Two numbers of this leading American Magazine have reached us at the same time, and brought upon as an embarrass de richesses. The articles number some eighteen in each, and there is not one that we should be inclined to pass over. Indeed, "Putnam"'s has a peculiar attraction for us, and we see in it a reflection of the mind, manners, and intelligence of our trans-Atlantic cousins. It carries us into a new country, and makes us acquainted with all its characteristics in an easy, unaffected manner. Politics are not neglected: but we do not detect faction, or even party, and we read under a persuasion that we are gathering the impartial opinion of the best minds in the United States.—London Eng. MUSICAL REVIEW AND GAZETTE,

COMMENCES its Seventh Year, and a New Volume,

O in January, 1856. In calling stiention to the Review, its publishers believe they can present to the public no more satisfactory oridence of its excellence as a musical journal than is afforded in its constantly increasing success. It has now about three times as large a circulation as any other musical periodical in the world. Its receipts from subscribers during the last six months have been more than double those for the corresponding period of the year previous. By such flattering marks of approval, the publishers are incited to increased enterprise and exertion to add to the excellence of the Review. Prizes amounting to three hundred deliars were recently offered by them for songs for its pages. Of the vast number sent in to compete for these prizes, the best were selected by a competent committee, and are now in course of publication in the Review. When their publication is completed, the subscribers to the Review will decide by ballot which shall receive the prizes.

Besides a large amount of reading matter, including regular correspondence from the leading cities in the world, each number contains several pages of new music. A series of articles on Music Teaching, by Ir. Lowell Mason, is now in progress of publication. Another, by Groo. P. Root, Equ., on Cultivation of the Voice, Vocal Training, &c., will be commenced in the beginning of the new volume, as well as one by W.s. B Bradbury, Eq., on the Improvement of Church Music. The New York Musical Review and Gazette is published fortinghily, at one dollar per annum, or six copies for five dollars; payable in advance. Specimen copies

The Allies reject this interpretation.

Count Esterhazy reached St. Petersburg on the 28th of December. The next, day he laid the propositions of Austria before the Russian.

Count Buol subsequently communicated to Prince Gortschakoff, at Vienna, the terms on which the Western Powers would assent to peace, stating that those terms were approved by Austria. These terms have already been published.

Russia makes known in Count Nesselrode's Russia makes known in Count Nesserode's circular her unwillingness to treat for the neutralization of the Black Sea, and it is expected she will absolutely refuse her assent to the cession of territory to keep open the Danube.

Appearances strongly indicate that Austria will not take the field against Russia, unless assured of the active support of the German-States.

The Wezor Gazette states that an additional article touching the third point has been added to the treaty of December 2d, between Austria, France, and England.

It does not, however, impose on Austria the obligation to take part in the war in case Russia refuses to abcept the third point as interpreted by the Allies. The Russian Court is displeased with Baron

BALTIMORE & OFINTERNAL
From Wheeling to Baltimore and Washington.
THE GREAT WORK OF INTERNAL Improvement (379 miles to Baltimore, and 403 to Washington.) was opened to the Ohio River in January, 1853, and has now been fully tested and approved, both as a freight and passenger route. The road is located in a romante country, is solidly constructed, fully equipped and carefully managed, and is thus rendered an attractive as well as safe line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio Road from Columbus to the Ohio, four miles below Wheeling, adds greatly to the importance of this route, affording, as it does, the most thorough rail connection with air parts of the West.
The only Through Tickets Between Cincinnati and the National Metropoits are sold by this road, which runs direct to Washington, without the delay of passing through Baltimore.
This is also the only line by which baggage can be checked to Washington.

Feeling thankful for the liberal patronage which has been extended to the House for the past fifteen years, trust by strict personal attention to business; care and promptness in filling orders, to retain a continuance of the same. Our Stock is heavy; comprising every article wanted by druggists and dealers. As we purchase principally for cash, direct from the importers and manufacturers, our facilities are such that we can offer, in pure and unadulterated articles, as strong inducements for cash, as any other Western House, and invite all to give us a call, as we feel confident we can render satisfaction both in prices and quality of articles. All articles warranted as represented.

Particular attention paid to prescriptions, which in no case will be dispensed except by a fully competent and experienced person, and from the best articles.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the late firm of Craughan & Browning, by note or book account, are requested to call and make pagment without further delay—as the business must be settled at as early a day as possible.

have ample and tangible proof that the old system of dosing AGE SUFFERERS with mixtures of Arsenic, Quinne, Mercury and Strychine, must soon be exploded and abandoned, because, "the remedy is worse than the disease," and because you cannot take poison without being poisoned. You may not feel the ill effects at once, but you will be more fortunate than some others, if you make the discovery before your constitution is broken.—Be advised, then, in season, and test for your own satisfaction the racra which prove that Aguse Sufferers can be Cured without Poison!

No matter how long you have suffered, nor how obsti-nate your disease. The discovery of Rmode's Fever and Adult Bring, or Antidote to Malaria, is a fact which will abundantly prove the truth of these assertions. It is nothing less than "Navore's lwalliable Antidork," possessing the sure and active principle of resistance to any attacks from Malaria, which is known to be the cause of Fever and Agus. Fever and Ague.
The value of this Remedy consists !.. caese simple

"I have made a chemical examination of "RHODES" PEVER AND AGUE CURE," or "ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA," and have tested it for Arsenic, Mercury, Quinine, and Strychnine, but have not found a particle of either in it, nor have I found any substance in its composition that would prove injurious to the constitution. The claims of such a medicine are safely based upon its intrinsic merits. It has no similarity whatever to any of the pills or mixtures which abound in every section and contain more or less of the polsons which destroy the vitality of the system, and have caused irreparable injury to thousands of credulous and ignorant sufferers. THE undersigned wishes to direct the attention of the public to the above named establishment, which has been fitted up.with the design to furnish everything belonging to a Drug Store. Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Perfumery, Glass ware, Paints, Oils, &c., of a reliable quality and moderate price.

To the Ladies I wish to say, that I keep constantly on hand, Harrison's and Jules Hauel's celebrated Perfusers, and that my own Parkings and the public to the above the attention of the some may Direction accompany. mery, and that my own Perfumery and Chemicals have been honored with a Diploma and Premium, at the last State Fair. Perfumery is for personal ornament, pleasure, comfort, and health, and ought to stand conspicuous as befitting Christmas presents; your patronage therefore, I here with solicit. I also invite the attention of the Physicians, and I hope that they, by examining my Establishment, will be far from finding it a mere Patent Medicine Depot—behold all the agents of the standard Pharmscopus in fresh and chemically pure, and thorough exactness filling Prescriptions in either language, English, French, or German. I hope to give assurance to Physicians, that they can prescribe with safety to their patients, and I am willing to have my Medicines examined by any respectable Physician or committee of Physicians, and correct or furnish everything found deficient.

MEDICATED INHALATION!

DR. J. N. GREEN, HAS permanently located in Indianapolis, and opened an Infirmary for the treatment of Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, by Medicated Inhalation, lately brought into practice in the Brompton Hospitalof London where it was practiced by as celebrated Physicians as the world can boast of, with astonishing success, as over four-fifths of the patients were permanent y cured.
This system is founded on the common sense principle of treating the disease and not its effects. The next-This system is founded on the common sense principle of treating the disease and not its effects. The medicine, in the form of vapor, is applied directly to the seat of the disease, leaving the stomach free to aid in restoring health by furnishing to it healthy life-giving food. The common, but abourd practice of treating diseases of the Lungs, through the medium of the stomach, demonstrates its injudiciousness as well as a universal failure can. We earnestly appeal to those afflicted with lung diseases to embrace the advantages of Inhalation, and no longer drug the unoffending stomach.

Those living at a distance, by writing to us their symptoms, age, sex, hereditary predispositions, &e., can have an inhaler and medicine sent to any point they may order.
